PUBLIC COMMENT

President Cox Golder read the procedures for the Call to the Audience.

Ms. Lisa Millerd, Amphi Education Association (AEA) president, spoke about the concept of family. She expressed what she would like District administrators to hear, to have everyone treated with respect, equity, and valued for their work. She said we are all here to do what is best for our students. She hears District administrators talk about being an Amphi family, but feels their words do not meet their actions. She continued saying that some employees do not feel like they are treated with respect or valued for their work. This being based on recent compensation negotiations as well as advocacy issues that arise in their AEA world. Ms. Millerd stated that promises were made and some did not come to fruition. Lastly, she asked that employees be shown they are valued with appropriate compensation.

Ms. Sue Clark, is an ELD teacher at Holaway Elementary, a member of AEA, and a member of the Meet and Confer team. She spoke to the Board regarding an AZ Daily Star article dated August 5, 2019. It read “Along with TUSD, Amphi was not able to give all of their teachers 5% raises. Teachers at Amphi received 3.5% raises with senior teachers receiving a $500 - $1000 stipend, said a District spokeswoman. With the stipend some teachers received more than 5% and some teachers less, she said. The District didn’t dip into their capital funds for the raises.” Ms. Clark noted that during the Meet and Confer process, the teams were told that no DAA (District Additional Assistance) money (what the article refers to as capital money) was to be used this year since it was used the previous year, right after the Red for Ed movement. Ms. Clark suggested that the Board use DAA money next year, focusing on wage compression needs of our classified personnel and rewarding and retaining our current certified personnel. If this is not possible, she continued, she wanted a communication as to why not.

Ms. Darlene Rowe is a teacher at Coronado K-8 school. She spoke in reference to a letter from Coronado teachers sent to the Governing Board, the Superintendent, and some District staff last year. She said the letter asked for less students per teacher in each classroom with consistency to that in all Amphi schools. If there are exceptions, she asked that to be communicated to the staff. Ms. Rowe asked for financial support to continue giving the excellence of service they provide. She said there was an increased number of kids with emotional and social needs, and more resources were needed to provide physically and environmentally safe environments, including more staff and smaller class sizes. She said that 8 out of 12 elementary classes have over 29 students, and the 4th grade classrooms both have over 35 students.

3. INFORMATION¹

A. Superintendent's Report

Superintendent Jaeger provided a brief report of activities in the District. He shared information about his conference in mid-July in Washington D.C. for the National School Public Relations Association (NSPRA) conference. They received a lot of great ideas for promoting our school District and noted this is where they connected with a vendor last year who helped with the marketing our District. Ms. Valenzuela briefed the Board last month regarding the marketing plan and how the District has received over 4.2 million impressions through different media sources that was directly due to the new marketing plan that was implemented.

Superintendent Jaeger talked about the many trainings that took place over the summer.

On July 31, Superintendent Jaeger welcomed new teachers to the district at the Effective Teaching Conference.

Superintendent Jaeger attended Meet and Greets at Transportation and Food Service and met several new employees.

On Thursday and Friday, August 8 and 9, Superintendent Jaeger, President Cox Golder and Vice President Zibrat visited schools, which he and the Board will continue doing. A video was shown to capture the energy of students and staff beginning a new school year with the song “We are Family” as the theme music.

In the coming weeks, he and Board members will begin Site Visits. The first one is scheduled at Transportation & Food Service, and then the Warehouse & Graphics & Printing. These departments and their employees are very much appreciated and essential, as they support all staff and our schools.

Superintendent Jaeger mentioned upcoming events including his Listening Tour at Transportation & Food Service.

Superintendent Jaeger is on the American Heart Association Board of Directors, representing the educational community and has a meeting coming up on August 22.

On August 23, he will be attending the AZ Business & Education Coalition (ABEC) membership meeting in Phoenix. And then on August 29, he will meet with the Cradle to Career (C₂C) Leadership Council. C₂C is United Way’s data driven instructional improvement program. They will be supporting districts to improve early childhood literacy including dedication of $4000 to train personnel with data analysis.

On August 30 Superintendent Jaeger will attend his first Student Advisory Council meeting for this school year at Canyon del Oro High School.

On September 4-6 he and Board Members will be attending the AZ School Board Association (ASBA) Law Conference in Phoenix.

During his personal time, Superintendent Jaeger attended a LEAP Ahead meeting. He commented on how very committed this group of individuals are, led by Ms. Beth Lake, to assist with getting the word out for our Override election. He thank Ms. Lake and the group, and said that he would help out as much as he could, on his own time and with his own resources. PTO and Site Council meetings will be gearing up. Superintendent’s Cabinet members and Superintendent Jaeger will attend these meetings to brief these groups on the Override Elections. Ms. Beth Lake will pursue other resources to accomplish this as well. It is important to keep the public informed about the Override Elections, which includes a question for a 3.5% increase for lowering K-3 class size and providing all-day Kindergarten at every Amphi school. This will free up Title 1 funds if passed.

Mr. Burns offered to answer any questions the Board may have.

President Cox Golder questioned why a Maker Space at some schools is so differently priced in one class and school than another class and school.

Mr. Burns stated that the cost depends on whether the room was carpeted before the start of the project, as a Maker Space is required to have no carpet. La Cima took a science room that did not have any carpet and was able to cut cost since they didn't have to remove carpet or scrape the floor.

Mr. Burns was thanked for a job well done and detailed report. See Exhibit 14 for details.

C. Report on the Effective Teaching Conference 2019

Superintendent Jaeger introduced the item and invited Dr. Lopez to present this Item to the Board.

Dr. Lopez thanked the Board and Superintendent Jaeger for this opportunity to talk about our professional development. The Effective Teaching Conference began many years ago to welcome and introduce new staff to their work environment at Amphi.

Dr. Lopez noted that the host site this year was Amphitheater High School and thanked them for their hospitality. There were 31 first year teachers who attended the conference. These first year teachers will be matched with a mentor for their first year. There were 41 elementary teachers, 22 middle school teachers, 27 high school teachers, and 18 other professional staff that also attended the conference.

Board members also attended the conference and welcomed our new staff. The opening session was led by Superintendent Jaeger. Dr. Lopez taught teaching standards and the Portrait of the Graduate, and Ms. Tong introduced legal issues to the group. Attendees were required to attend two business sessions, one Tyler SIS. The other session everyone attended was presented by Ms. Valenzuela and Dr. Lopez called "The Amphi Way" - a session about the history of Amphi and proper protocols.

Other session topics included classroom planning, classroom management, needs of all learners, and a new STEM session.

Dr. Lopez thanked several groups for hosting breakfast and lunch during the Effective Teaching Conference including the Amphi Foundation, Amphi Education Association, Amphi Food Service, and Jim Click.

Dr. Lopez mentioned that the 31 new teachers (brand new to teaching) was met with a mentor. Mentors will meet throughout the year. This year, the Curriculum Support group added a three-day session called "Boost" for these teachers. They attended extensive planning and classroom management sessions.

D. Overview of Professional Development Offerings Summer 2019

Superintendent Jaeger told the Board that the Summer Institute was made available because of Results Based Funding. Teachers who attended were paid for their time at this Summer Institute with Results Based Funding to replicate successes at other schools. He invited Dr. Lopez to present this Item to the Board.

Dr. Lopez noted that this was the first time the District was able to pay teachers to attend professional development sessions. These summer institutes were developed by District employees and outside consultants were not hired for these sessions. The results were very successful. These sessions were replication topics, strategies and in-depth trainings, all from Results Based Funding. She noted the following topics that were offered: Integrating STEM; Picture Perfect STEM (K-1) (2-3) (4-5); Number Talks; Daily Number Routines; PBIS; Balanced Literacy (intermediate grades); Project CRISS (middle and high school); R.E.E.L. (early literacy); Fruit Fly Genetics; Digital Integration Training; and Trauma Informed Practices.

Dr. Lopez mentioned that the participant feedback was encouraging and that 100% of the participants felt the sessions were useful and practical, and would assist them in improving their instructional practice. Participants also felt that there were opportunities during the sessions to collaborate with colleagues and the facilitators helped connect this content to the Portrait of the Graduate. The last feedback showed that 70% of the participants signed up for this summer institute because they were being paid; 20% said it didn't matter much; and 10% said it didn't matter at all.

Dr. Lopez showed quotes from participants stating instructors were very well prepared and engaging, information was relevant, and will be useful in the classroom.

Dr. Lopez offered to answer questions the Board may have. Ms. Day asked how many teachers participated. Dr. Lopez said they had 272 participants with 42 teachers in the biggest class which was Integrating STEM with Mr. McConnell. The smallest class size was 6 in Fruit Fly Genetics. These were teachers from middle schools who are teaching this course.
